.....
.....

3. NOTICE TO THE DEFENDANT SERVED with this document:

If you are convicted, you will have an opportunity to explain to the court why you think the proposed order should not be made. (Written notice of any evidence you rely on needs to be served on the court officer and the prosecutor.)²

¹ The prosecutor believes that an anti-social behaviour order is necessary to protect people in any place in England and Wales from further anti-social acts by you. This is because you are alleged to have acted in an anti-social manner, that is to say, in a manner that caused or was likely to cause harassment, alarm or distress to one or more persons not of the same household as you.

² See rules 50.3(4) and 50.6.
