

132.15 Part compliance

See also: R v Ansley 2014 EWCA Crim 1135 (Sentenced to 8 months suspended for fraud. 67 previous offences. 11 previous breaches of non-custodial sentences. Three breaches by failure to attend in 6 months. First breach within weeks of imposition of the order (10 extra hours). Second breach (2 months tag). Had completed 55½ hours of 250 hours unpaid work. Judge entitled to activate the entirety of the suspended sentence. A suspended sentence is not a ‘set-off’ whereby defendants can trade a reduction in length by reference to partial compliance. He had wholly failed to engage with the order.)
